

Lauren Bush EPK

BIOGRAPHY

Known for her charming delivery of a lyric and her impeccable time, 2016 Sarah Vaughan Vocal Competition finalist, Lauren Bush is making a name for herself in the UK and Europe.

Her debut album, All My Treasures, comprised of 12 carefully selected, favourite jazz standards, was produced by jazz luminary Ian Shaw. With quirky and refreshing arrangements, Lauren is able to show off her versatility and improvisation skills.

Originally from Canada, Lauren has toured around the US and had started to develop a name for herself in British Columbia, performing at the Victoria Jazz Festival in 2010 before relocating to the UK 7 years ago. Since then, she's been developing her reputation across Europe, touring extensively around Italy and the UK. Notable achievements include the Sarah Vaughan Competition, being a finalist in the 2015 Riga Jazz Stage and most proudly, her "Collection of Canadian Jazz" concert at the 2017 London Jazz Festival.